Tharp named state's Prosecutor of the Year

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE, OCTOBER 19, 2015:

NEW BRAUNFELS — Comal County District Attorney Jennifer Tharp has been named 2015 Prosecutor of the Year by the State Bar of Texas and the Texas District and County Attorneys Association (TDCAA).

Tharp received the award Sept. 23 at the TDCAA's annual conference. She was selected from nominations submitted to the TDCAA board, which voted on the award then sent its nominee to the State Bar of Texas Board for approval.

Bell County District Attorney Henry Garza nominated Tharp for the award.

"It was a great honor to receive this award from my peers whom I respect immensely," said Tharp, who was first elected district attorney in 2010. "I am grateful for the support of the citizens of Comal County – I truly love serving this community as their criminal district attorney."

Tharp was recognized especially for her work advocating for victims' rights.

"From day one Jennifer has exhibited the best qualities of a prosecutor – dedication, courage to do the right thing and the work ethic to get the job done," said Robert Kepple, executive director of the TDCAA. "She has earned the respect and admiration of her peers."
