Monday is voter registration deadline for March 1 primary

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE, JANUARY 27, 2016:

NEW BRAUNFELS — Comal County voters wishing to cast a ballot in the March 1 primary election must register to vote by Monday.

Those who have not yet registered to vote can do so in person at the Comal County Elections Office, 178 E. Mill St., Suite 100, or they can print and mail the application on the Texas Secretary of State website. Applications must be postmarked by Monday.

The March 1 primary contains contested elections for U.S. president, U.S. House Dist. 21 and state railroad commissioner on both the Republican and Democratic sides. Ballots in both parties also contain separate series of nonbinding referendum questions.

Contested races on the GOP side also include county sheriff, Precinct 1 county commissioner, Dist. 73 state representative, three places on the state Court of Criminal Appeals, and three places on the Texas Supreme Court. Early voting for the election begins Feb. 16 and ends Feb. 26.

Sample ballots, voting-precinct maps, and early voting times and locations can be found at the Comal County elections webpage, votecomal.com.

In the event no candidate receives more than 50 percent of the vote in a race, a primary runoff will take place May 24, for which the voter registration deadline would be April 24.
