Extension Service hosts Texas Fruit Conference

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE, AUGUST 30, 2016:

NEW BRAUNFELS — The fifth annual Texas Fruit Conference is coming to New Braunfels, bringing together commercial and recreational fruit growers from across the state to discuss the challenges and successes of Texas fruit growing.

The two-day conference is hosted by the Texas A&M AgriLife Extension Service. It will be Oct. 31 and Nov. 1 at the New Braunfels Civic/Convention Center.

“This is a great opportunity for Comal County-area fruit growers to learn about what’s new in the industry and how to improve their crop,” said Troy Luepke, extension agent for agriculture and natural resources at the Comal County extension office.

Early-bird registration is $65 per person through Sept. 1, after which it will be $80 per person through Oct. 21. On-site registration will be $95 per person. Attendees can register at <https://agriliferegister.tamu.edu/index.cfm/productDetails/productid/2093/>.
