Proclamation

Recognizing October 17-21, 2016, as “Chamber of Commerce Week” in Comal County

WHEREAS, Texas has become an economic power thanks to the ingenuity and hard work of its residents – a citizenry full of entrepreneurs and innovators seeking to carve out a better life for themselves, their families and their communities, and whose dreams in many cases become reality with the help of local chambers of commerce; and

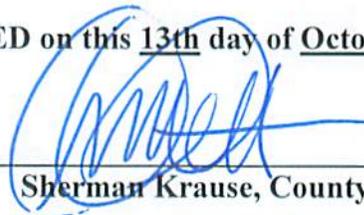

WHEREAS, local chambers of commerce, including our area chambers, have distinguished themselves through the promotion of local communities and projects, laying the foundation for many communities and contributing to a better future for all Texans by fostering job creation, improving education and developing infrastructure; and

WHEREAS, each year, a week in October is dedicated to celebrating the achievements of the more than 600 local chambers of commerce in Texas, and in Comal County, we also take this time to recognize and show our support for our local community chambers of commerce; and

WHEREAS, we encourage all residents of Comal County to recognize the vital and constructive accomplishments of these organizations, which are crucial to the past, present and future development of our great communities.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED that the Comal County Commissioners Court does hereby proclaim October 17-21, 2016, to be Chamber of Commerce Week in Comal County and urges the appropriate recognition whereof.

PASSED AND APPROVED on this 13th day of October, 2016.
